You are in a major life transition and we can help!

You successfully served our country with honor. Now you want to succeed in a career but you are unsure about what kind of a career you want to pursue or where to even begin?

You are hard working, but hard work alone is not always enough to succeed in today's job market. To go with that hard work, you need a plan. Together, we can help by providing you with one-on-one vocational and personal counseling. Together we can determine what educational and career opportunities are best suited for you. Combining your hard work with an in-depth skill profile and up-to-date career path information will launch you towards success you want and deserve in your career.

If this sounds like you, the services available in the Chapter 36 program are for you. Click here to apply for Chapter 36 and start working on your plan for success today!
