VFW To Assist CDC In Agent Orange Study

Washington, DC (S&S)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars will assist the Center for Disease Control (CDC) in Atlanta in locating veterans for participation in the CDC study of the effects of Agent Orange and other herbicide exposure.

James R. Currie, VFW National Commander-in-Chief, said the VFW will check its computerized membership list for possible VFW affiliation for those veterans who served in Vietnam which the CDC is unable to locate for the study.

To protect their members' privacy, addresses will not be released to the CDC. The CDC will provide the VFW with the correspondence which will be mailed at VFW expense. ★

Med Supplies

Individuals and corporations in the Orlando area provided funds to secure the aircraft to fly in both shipments and offset other expenses.

In-country warehousing and distribution will be handled by the Knights of Malta, a relief-oriented Catholic fraternal organization.

The second shipment included 30 school desks for children in one displaced persons camp where McCollum had seen efforts to provide education despite the poverty-stricken conditions. Blackboards and other school supplies were also donated for the relief effort.

People have "literally changed the lives of thousands of adults and children they'll never get to see," McCollum said. "These people are overwhelmed by the fact that so many people in the U.S. cared enough to do something about it—and to do it immediately." ★

The Nation Prays

This prayer was offered by the Reverend Edward L. R. Elson.

Almighty God, grant that we may this day endeavor to be that which Thou wouldst have us to be, and to do that which Thou wouldst have us to do; listening to the voice of Thy spirit within us; not leaving one sin unrepented of, one spot in our hearts uncleansed; not looking backward but forward; not looking downward but lifting our vision upward; not lamenting the things undone, but rejoicing in the things done; not leaning for strength upon mortal man, but upon Thee, the Rock of Ages, who endures forever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

85% Jobless In SBA Nav

Washington, DC (S&S)—The awarding of a $4.4 million Navy contract to a minority-owned small business will revitalize the small city of Renovo, PA which suffers from an 85% unemployment rate.

The contract, announced by the Small Business Administration (SBA), will create at least 150 new jobs in Renovo, a town of 1,800 population in north central Pennsylvania. That job total is expected to rise to 500 in the next three years.

The Navy contract to build floating sea warehouses was awarded under SBA's 8(a) program to United Chemcon Corporation, an electronics manufacturer headquartered in Lancaster, PA.

Under that program, SBA directs Federal procurement contracts to small firms owned by socially and disadvantaged persons.

United Chemcon will hire unemployed Renovo welders who are being retrained through a $92,000 grant from the state of Pennsylvania.

Renovo's jobless rate soared to 85 percent as a result of the worst fire in the town's history and the closing of two major businesses.

In announcing the contract, SBA Administrator James C. Sanders said, "This award illustrates not only the job creation and economic
